

PERSONALIZED LEARNING PROBLEMS OF PRACTICE SURVEY: ALL LAUNCH SCHOOLS

The charts that follow depict the results of a survey completed by 95 teachers and school leaders at current personalized learning launch schools. Respondents were asked to indicate the extent to which they agree that various resources or conditions (“Building Blocks”) are in place in their schools and the district as a whole.

Culture of Innovation

A culture that promotes experimentation, knowledge sharing, learning, and improvement

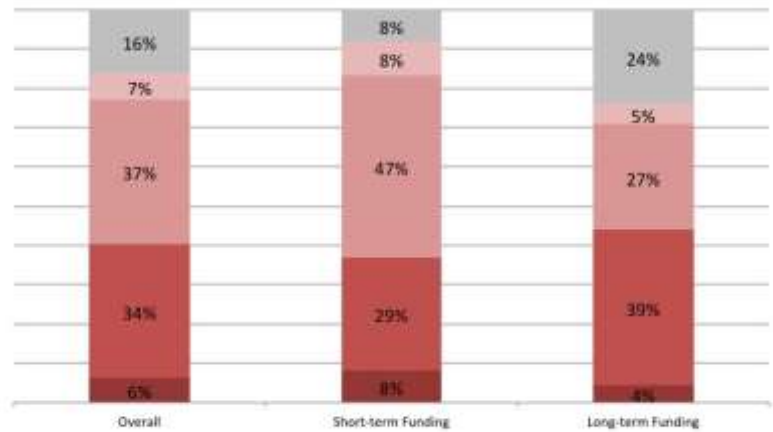

Strongly Disagree Disagree Agree Strongly Agree Don't Know

Funding Sources & Strategies

The financial resources needed to initiate and sustain a personalized model of instruction

Instructional Tools & Practices

Standards, curriculum, and related resources that support the rigorous implementation of the core elements of personalized learning

Leadership

A coalition of leaders with a deep commitment to personalized learning, knowledge of the work, and the power to make change happen within schools, or across the larger district

Policy Supports & Flexibilities

Federal, state, district, and school-level policies that enable personalized learning

Stakeholder Engagement

A diversity of stakeholders who are aware of, understand, and actively support personalized learning

Strategy

A detailed, coherent plan for implementation that provides motivation to change and a clear path forward

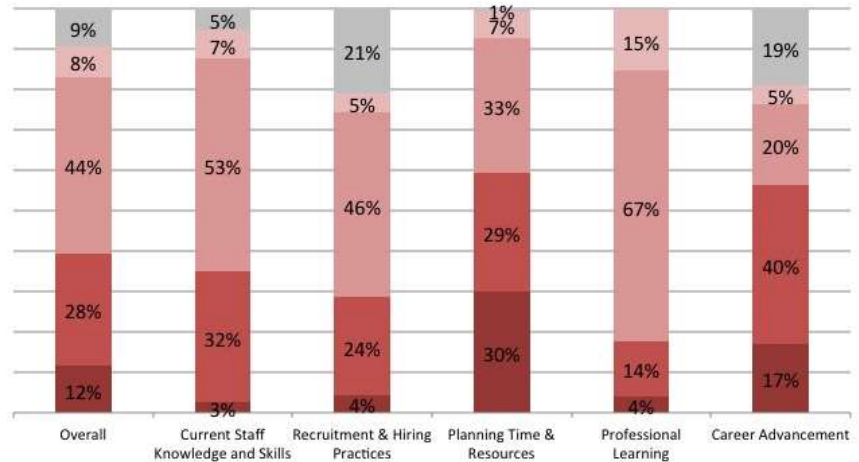

■ Strongly Disagree
 ■ Disagree
 ■ Agree
 ■ Strongly Agree
 ■ Don't Know

Teacher & Leader Capacity Building

Teachers and leaders with the knowledge and skills to implement personalized learning

Technology Infrastructure

Devices, software, and connectivity that supports the use of technology in the personalization of learning

Vision

A carefully developed and clearly communicated vision for personalized learning that includes guiding principles for the model focused on the instructional core

Strongly Disagree Disagree Agree Strongly Agree Don't Know